Economics Teacher

(Full time, Permanent)

Context

INTO is an organisation working in partnership with leading UK and US universities and investing in the development of world-class student study centres. It specialises in preparing international students for undergraduate and postgraduate study with both academic and English language support. The courses at our Centres, upon successful completion, guarantee progression to leading UK and US undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as stand-alone English language courses. INTO Manchester is a wholly owned INTO University Partnerships venture.

INTO Manchester are looking for a Full Time Economics teacher to join the teaching team for the International Foundation and International Year One Programmes in May 2019.

Requirements

We require a well-qualified, enthusiastic and experienced teacher to teach Economics to the equivalent of A-level (International Foundation Programme) and first year undergraduate level (International Year One - FHEQ Level 4) to international students. This will involve establishing a sound foundation in the basic principles of micro and macro Economics.

We require a teacher with a strong track record of academic success and achievement to teach Economics at the INTO Centre on Whitworth Street in the centre of Manchester. The successful applicant will have the ability to teach students from a variety of countries and cultural backgrounds who speak English as a second language. This is an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic teacher looking to teach in international education.
