Development Support Analyst (Fixed Term)

Context

INTO's mission:

Through innovative partnerships with leading universities we expand opportunities for higher education, ensuring success and transforming the lives of our students and staff.

Across the world, there is increasing demand for top quality higher education, with more and more students demanding access to provision beyond their home country. INTO partners with universities in three continents to address this global demand and help transform their international capacity and performance. Since 2006, we have successfully launched partnerships with 22 universities in Europe, North America and Asia. We have enrolled over 67,000 students from 166 countries and now have about 1700 employees, based round the world.

Our website <http://www.intoglobal.com/> has details of how we are organised and our outstanding achievements so far

Requirements

INTO is in the process of developing a range of external-facing customer portals and application form to increase the range of its digital interactions with all customer groups. This post will play a key role in developing new functionality across that suite of portals and forms, defining user stories and supporting the development and testing process as well as assisting with support of live functionality.

The Development Support Analyst will support the product owner and development teams to enhance the Partner Portal. The primary focus will be on defining user stories and acceptance criteria for upcoming partner portal developments and new projects, with a secondary focus on using analytical tools to assist with data reporting and providing insights which could drive development.

This role will also include a small amount of first line support work.
